

Marco Named to Dean's List by Public University Products and News

Marco is proud to announce that we have been named to the Dean's List by Public University Products and News (PUPN)—a recognition awarded to exceptional companies serving the private higher education market.

Each year, Private University Products and News highlights organizations whose products and services make a measurable impact on private college and university campuses across the country. The Dean's List honors industry leaders who demonstrate excellence in quality, innovation, and service.

This recognition underscores Marco's ongoing commitment to delivering thoughtfully designed, American-made solutions that support educators, students, and facilities teams alike. From classrooms to specialized spaces, we remain dedicated to shaping learning environments that adapt, inspire, and endure.

About the Dean's List Awards

PUPN's Annual Dean's List Awards spotlight outstanding providers across facilities management, campus planning, sustainability, technology, furnishings, athletics, safety, and related areas. Winners are featured in the September issue of Private University Products and News and across PUPN's digital platforms.
